

I rely on closed captioning to understand TV programming. The quality of the captioning is very bad on some programs, often it is incomprehensible or not there at all. I would like to see improvements made to the quality and quantity of captioning available. Thank you.